University Anniversary
Working Group

Dear Members, Friends, Sponsors and Alumni of Ruperto Carola!

The first few months of this anniversary year are behind us. In numerous commemorative events – not only here in Heidelberg but in the state representative offices in Berlin and Brussels – Heidelberg University showcased itself to a wide audience and gave scientists, academics and employees of Ruperto Carola deeper insight into its projects and work.

Over the next weeks and months, we expect to welcome many visitors from all areas of science. Important student issues will be addressed at two national student council conferences, the German University Rectors Conference will convene in Heidelberg in May, and in June the German Academic Exchange Service will host a large number of scholarship recipients at the university. The number of scientific congresses, symposia and conferences is extensive. See the electronic calendar at <http://625.uni-heidelberg.de> to get an overview of all the events and the rich cultural programme ahead.

We urge our faculty to arrange free admission to the events and scientific conferences for your students. To keep your students up to date on individual events, we will periodically send out informational PowerPoint slides for you to share with them, e.g. at the beginning of class.

Thank you so much for your support!

Sincerely

Yours,

Jochen Tröger

Max Kade Foundation supports the renovation of the »Neue Universität«

Progress continues on the renovation and modernisation of the New University as part of the »Dem lebendigen Geist« campaign. The Max Kade Foundation in New York (USA) provided generous support in the amount of $600,000, which is being used to help renovate the grand foyer. Once complete, the foyer will no longer be a mere entrance area to the main auditorium and the lecture halls, but will serve as a venue for concerts, seminars and lectures. At the same time, it will function as a meeting place for students and faculty.

University Mile – still seeking participants

The »Festival Week«, which runs from June 25 – July 2, 2011, will launch with the ceremonial reopening of the New University and University Mile. Between the New University and Marstall, the gates and doorways of all university buildings, their interior courtyards and plazas will be open to one and all. The subject areas, faculties and institutions of Ruperto Carola will be showcased. We're still in search of stage acts, especially from among our students. We're looking for short, fun performances; music groups and athletic acts are welcome. You can submit your ideas and suggestions to Christiane Wickenhöfer, who is managing all the University Mile activities and can be contacted by telephone at (06221) 54-2011 (Monday through Thursday mornings) or by email at unimeile@uni-heidelberg.de.

Anniversary Year Working Group

As we regularly do at this point, we now introduce more members of Working Committee for the 625th anniversary of Ruperto Carola:

Anne-Kathrin Lange has been a student assistant on the anniversary staff since the beginning of April 2011. On completion of her Abitur in 2008, the Göttingen native was initially drawn to the University of Duisburg-Essen for the »Kulturwirt« programme for a degree in business and cultural studies. She's been studying political science and English at Heidelberg University since 2009. She gained valuable experience in managing musical and cultural events during preparation for the city of Essen's »2010 Cultural Capital of Europe« event.
